09:04:53 From Lee Che LEONG : So people no longer need to sign up by the 15th to get coverage for the next month?

09:10:39 From Public Health-Seattle & King County : Okay.

If a customer is eligible for the Cascade Care Savings SEP, a customer has until the last day of the month (April 30th) to sign up for coverage starting next month. The CCS SEP does not follow the 15th rule.
09:11:44 From Ethel Reines : Question: will this give advantage or priority to the people who could afford to pay out of pocket for WAH?
09:12:00 From Ethel Reines : for a QHP, rather
09:12:34 From Shandiny Gualip : unless the computer/speaker system can distinguish speaker output without becoming input, the tech support will need to keep manually muting for that difference. example, mic on for this in person q&a works great
09:12:55 From davisre : Echo again.
09:12:58 From Masami Villa (she/her) - KIND : Public Health can mute pls
09:12:59 From Patricia Bañuelos : The audio is terrible!
09:12:59 From betelhem : there's that echo again
09:17:42 From Roz NNN : Audio is OK now

Then If they pay the binder payment on April 30th and they need to see a doctor the 1st week in May how would they be able to prove they have active coverage?
09:20:21 From Lee Che LEONG : Replying to "So people no longer ..."

Thanks @Genny Arredondo, HBE; appreciate the clarification.
09:23:27 From Genny Arredondo, HBE : Replying to "for a QHP, rather"

Great question, Ethel. Our priority at HBE is to keep people covered. We were amazed so many Medicaid eligible folks were affording coverage. We believe this was likely due to high medical needs. One of our goals at HBE is to keep folks covered. We fear not transitioning this population would cause a disruption in their coverage and health care access.

Can you share any lessons learned? Especially around where engagement did not result in enrollment? For example, there was a significant drop in enrollment for people who ID as Asian for the newly eligible in contrast to prior QHP.

FPO is not a program you can apply for through HPF or WaCon. They can call directly at a number listed on the application form to apply directly. The FPO program is listed the letter when someone applies for an AH program and not eligible as a program they can apply for.
