

After your protection order hearing, what happens next?

What if I disagree with the court's decision?

Within 10 DAYS you can ask for reconsideration or revision.

Ask for reconsideration if the decision was legally incorrect or you have newly discovered evidence.

Ask for revision if your case was decided by a court commissioner (not a judge), and you want a judge to review the same evidence.

You can file an appeal within 30 DAYS. You have the right to a transcript or recording of the hearing.

If new evidence would support issuing a protection order, you can refile a petition for a protection order at any time.

If the order was granted...

How is the order enforced?

The restrained person must follow the order or risk criminal or civil penalties.

The protected person can call 911 to report violations.

Can the order be changed or terminated?

Either party may file a motion to modify or terminate the order.

A restrained person may do this only once within every 12-month period.

Can the order be renewed?

The protected person may file a motion to renew within 90 days before the order expires.

Example: if an order expires Dec. 15, a motion to renew may be filed as early as Sept. 16.

If weapons are surrendered, will they be returned?

Weapons may be returned after the order expires. Contact the law enforcement agency listed on the Order to Surrender Weapons.

Protected person: Ask them to alert you if weapons are returned.

Restrained person: Ask for instructions to have weapons returned.
