

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH LEGISLATIVE FORUM

A community conversation about mental health and substance use recovery

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2018

6:00 - 8:30 p.m. at the Seattle Center Exhibition Hall
301 Mercer St (at 3rd Ave N), Seattle

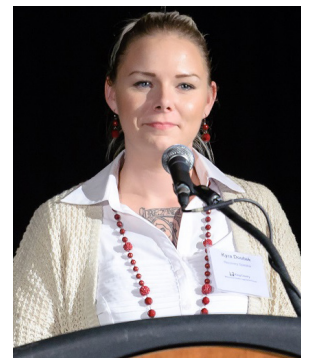

The forum will include:

- Opportunities for community members to connect with legislators and county councilmembers before the program.
- Opening remarks by King County Executive Dow Constantine and King County Prosecuting Attorney Dan Satterberg.
- King County's proposed behavioral health legislative priorities for 2019.
- Compelling personal stories from individuals in behavioral health recovery.
- The perspectives and priorities of legislators and county councilmembers.
- For those who can arrive early, an interactive event celebrating recovery starting at 4:30 p.m.

Interpretation will be available in Spanish, Vietnamese, Russian, and American Sign Language.

Free and open to all. Registration is encouraged but not required.
