

MIDD Advisory Committee Values and Guiding Principles Crosswalk 4.24.17

August 2015 MIDD Renewal Values and Guiding Principles	February 2017 Work Session Updates	Where is it?
Cultural competency lens with an Equity and Social Justice (ESJ) focus	Cultural humility lens with a focus on Equity and Social Justice (ESJ) and systemic racism	Table 1
Client centered; developed with consumer input	Client centered	Table 2
Ensure voices of youth and disenfranchised populations are represented	Voice of consumers, youth, disenfranchised populations and people with lived experience guide the work	Table 1
Self-sustaining; partnerships that leverage sustainability when possible	Self-sustaining partnerships that leverage sustainability when possible	Table 2
Transparent	Transparent	Table 1
Community driven, not county driven	community driven process, not county driven	Table 2
Recovery focused	Recovery focused	Both
Driven by documented outcomes	Driven by documented outcomes; informed by data	Table 2
Based in promising or best practices; evidence-based when possible	Based in promising or best practices; evidence-based when possible	Table 2
Strategies move us toward integration and are transformational	Responsive to significant environmental changes in federal/state policy and funding; filling gaps	Table 2
MIDD funding leverages criminal justice (CJ) system (youth and adult) changes	MIDD funding leverages criminal justice (CJ) system (youth and adult) changes	Table 1
Supports King County's vision for health care; reflects the triple aim: improved patient care experience, improved population health, and reduced cost of health care	Supports King County's vision for health care; reflects the triple aim: improved patient care experience, improved population health, and reduced cost of health care	Table 2
More upstream / prevention services	More upstream / prevention services Integrated, transformational services / strategies designed to serve our most disenfranchised populations	Table 2
Coordinated services		Not shown
Community- based organizations on equal status with County for compensation	Community- based organizations on equal status with County for compensation	Table 2
Continue legacy of CJ/human services coming together	True partnership between our CJ / human services goal to divert and prevent CJ involvement	Table 1 Table 2
Open to new ways of achieving results	Open to new ways of achieving results	Table 2
Build on strengths of the system	Build on strengths of the system	Table 2
Services are accessible to those with limited options	Services are accessible to those with limited options	Not shown
Common goal(s) across all organizations	Common goal(s) across all organizations	Table 2