

2021-2022 MIDD Community Driven Behavioral Health Services Grants (SI-01)

AWARDS

Organization	Award Amount	Service Location	Project
Community Health Board Coalition	$99,999	County wide impact	Systems and policy project to address the causes of mental health challenges rooted in structural racism that have been intensified by the COVID-19 pandemic.
Refugee Women's Alliance	$48,600	SeaTac (CD5)	Comprehensive, integrated behavioral health support, including psychiatric evaluations, medication prescriptions, and medication management.
Southeast Youth and Family Services	$99,964	Seattle and South King County (CD 2,5,7,9)	In collaboration with community and faith-based organizations, co-create culturally and linguistically appropriate outreach materials in Amharic, Oromo and Tigrigna and strategize ways to destigmatize traditional mental health services within East African immigrant and refugee communities.
Ukrainian Community Center of Washington	$24,999	Seattle and Southeast King County (CD 5,7,8)	Build a network of certified Mental Health First Aid responders amongst refugee and immigrant key community leaders.
Vietnamese Health Board	$49,789	Seattle and Southeast King County (CD 5,7,8)	Develop a culturally and linguistically appropriate and technologically accessible wellness programs that focus on community conversations about behavioral health challenges and how to access behavioral health support.

United Territories of Pacific Islander (UTOPIA)	$49,999	South King County (CD 5, 7)	Using API Indigenous healing framework, host Tala’Noa behavioral health and substance use conversation for QTPI (Queer and Trans Pacific Islanders) struggling with behavioral health challenges.
Comunidad Latina de Vashon	$99,999	Vashon Island (CD8)	Train the Latino youth of Vashon Island on behavioral health and social justice through promotores to facilitate the formation of a youth-led behavioral health program and school-to-organizer pipeline in order to nurture organic support systems for themselves and their peers, create pride in their own story and confidence to change the stories and systems that keep them from flourishing.
Khmer Community of Seattle-King County	$49,999	Seattle and Southeast King County (CD 5,7,8)	Develop culturally and linguistically appropriate behavioral health learning “spaces” for intergenerational dialogue, learning, sharing, and connections amongst Cambodian-American generations.
International Rescue Committee Inc.	$99,999	Seattle, and South King County (CD 2, 5, 7,8)	Pilot the “Attachment Vitamins in Refugee Families” innovative practice to address the attachment and behavioral health challenges experienced by Refugee and Asylee families during the resettlement process and create family unity and wellbeing.