

	measures for the first four objectives, while the measurement for objective five remains under discussion. Question: Deputy Mayor Robinson asked if there is expected to be an ask of municipal budgets for prevention services to serve the youth and if so, is there a projection of prevention services budget amount required? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is very early in this process and there is not a projection that can be predicted at this point. Comment: Councilmember Kohl-Welles asked for closer communication from the Zero Youth Detention team to stay more connected with this scope of work.
Public Comment	Cindy Olejar, from the Community Peer Respite Planning Council, requested to be included in the next steps and development all along the way for Peer Respite if the funding is approved. Cindy asked if Request for Proposal is the next step. Chris Verschuyl replied that the design phase and then a procurement process. The Community Peer Respite Planning Council would like to participate to share research findings and knowledge. Chris left hardcopies of information on Peer Respite at the end of the meeting. David Cullen from the Community Peer Respite Planning Council, briefly talked about peer respite, and suggested that an advisory board of peers be established. Anna Van Tosh, from Companis, a non-profit organization, emphasized the importance of peer and family education on the integration of mental health care. She encouraged more community education for people that receive services. Peggy Dolane, a community member made three announcements: 1) A new parental group, Mothers of Mentally Ill, formed in Vancouver, WA and will be hosting a meeting on November 13th in Ballard and is inviting MIDD AC members to attend. 2) Luncheon and Learn on race and mental health November 14th In Vancouver 3) the King County Family Youth Council is recruiting more members.
Adjourned	1:45PM
Next meeting	Thursday, December 13, 2018, 12:15-1:45 p.m., Chinook Room 121	