

Department of Local Services,
Permitting Division

Site Plan Template for Fuel Tanks

Residential, above ground tanks up to 2,000 gallons are issued subject to the attached Fire Code Conditions and inspection.

This site plan has not been reviewed for compliance. It is the owner/ Installer's responsibility to review all attached conditions prior to installation and calling for inspection.

Fire Approval

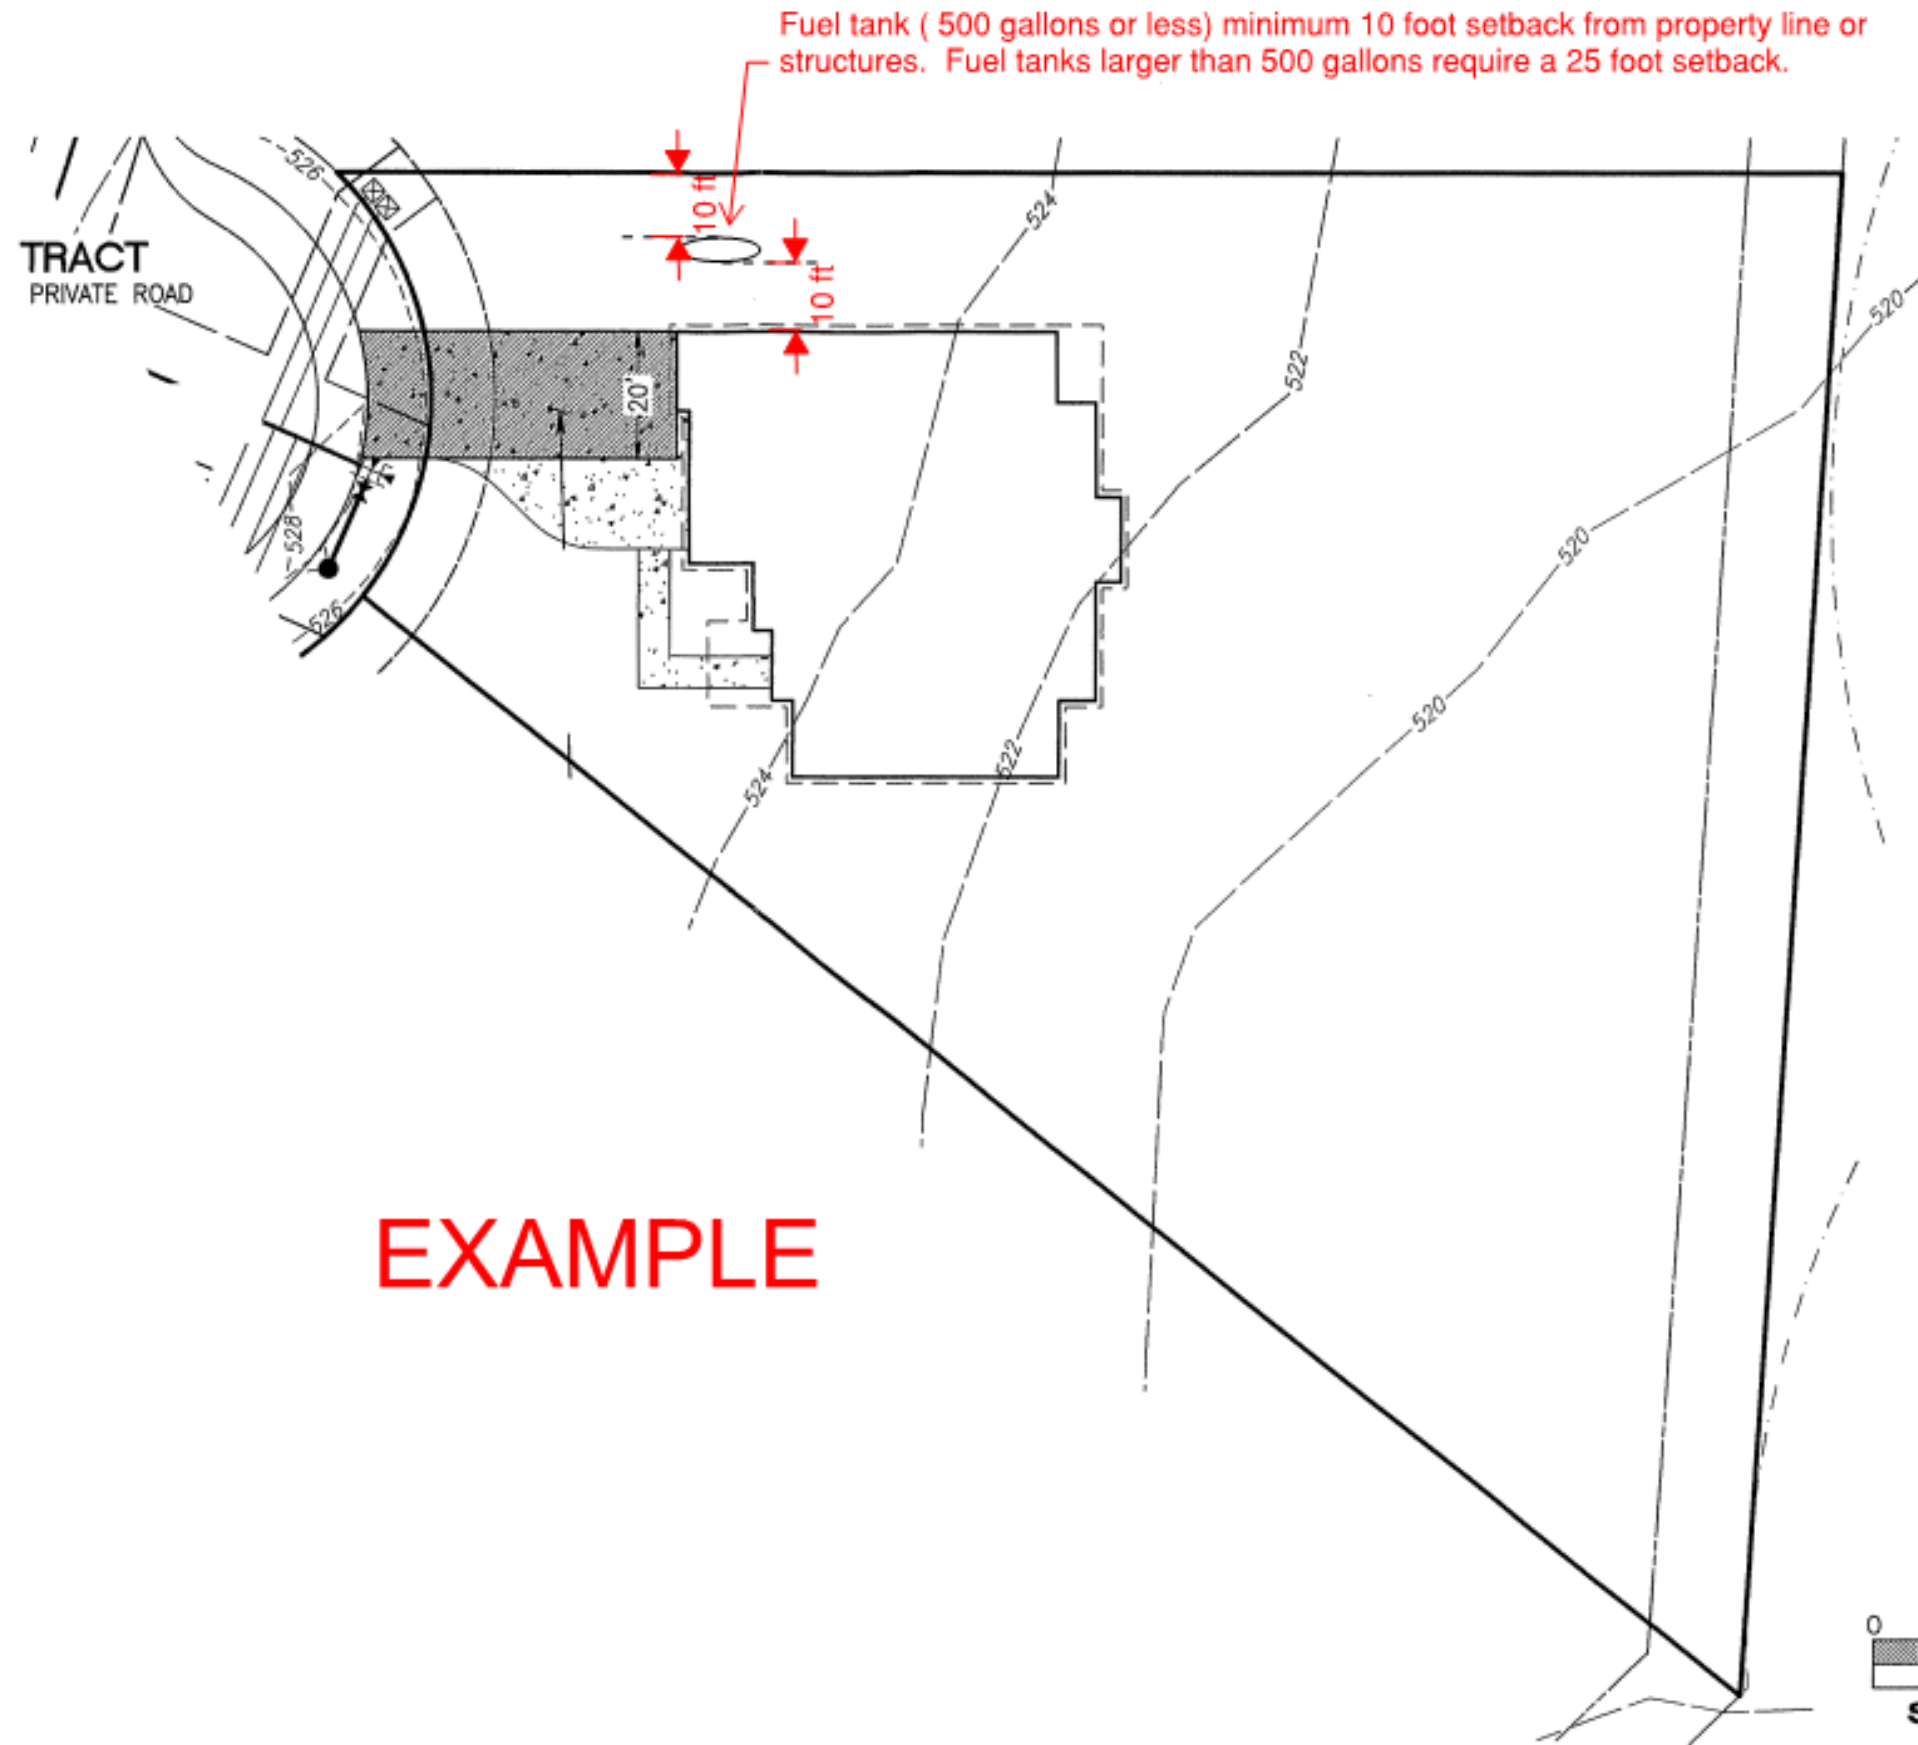

All residential aboveground fuel tanks over 2,000 gallons and ALL underground tanks required review by a Deputy Fire Marshal prior to issuance of a permit.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Fuel tank installations shall be submitted on this Site Plan template. The Site Plan must include property lines as well as all buildings or structures within proximity of the above-ground or underground fuel tank.

Any fuel tank located in a flood plain must provide Structural Engineering plans in addition to this Site Plan.

Permit Number: _____ Parcel Number: _____ Applicant Name: _____ Site Address: _____

Engineering Scale: 1" = _____

Sheet _____ of _____