The standard time allowed to pay all parking, and infraction penalties—both traffic and non-traffic— and criminal cases that go before the court for a hearing is ninety (90) days from the first date of imposition by a judicial officer's order.

Upon a court hearing the Court shall automatically assign a 90-day deadline for payment of all fines and fees before initiating the collections process.

Nothing in this Order restricts a judicial officer from granting additional time or reducing time to pay.
