Position: Investigations Analyst	FLSA: salaried, overtime exempt
Department: Office of Law Enforcement Oversight (OLEO)	Salary Grade: 126
Council Approved: February 1, 2022

Summary

The Investigations Analyst, under the guidance of the Investigations Monitor, plays a key role within the Office of Law Enforcement Oversight (OLEO), an independent agency that provides oversight of the Department of Public Safety (Sheriff's Office). The Investigations Analyst's central duty is the review of, and participation in, complex and sensitive administrative investigations to ensure that Sheriff's Office internal investigations are conducted in accordance with applicable laws and procedures. The Investigations Analyst may also participate in all facets of independent investigations conducted by OLEO, including supporting OLEO's Certification Program.

Additional duties may include tracking of investigations, data analysis, drafting of investigative and disciplinary findings, and preparation of reports for internal and external stakeholders. The Investigations Analyst works collaboratively with other staff and is assigned additional duties as needed. This is a salaried, at-will, overtime-exempt position that reports directly to the Director of OLEO or their designee.
