REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS

Phone (206) 477-0670 Fax (206) 205-0761

Location:

Yesler Building

400 Yesler Way, Room 140, Seatle

Business Hours:
Monday - Friday, 9:00 - 11:45 am | 12:45 - 3:45 pm

Do not bring children with you to CCAP

You have been ordered to participate in the Community Center for Alternative Programs which is often referred to as CCAP.

There are two CCAP programs:

- CCAP Basic: Persons ordered to CCAP Basic are required to report by telephone every day.
- CCAP Enhanced: Persons ordered to CCAP Enhanced are required to attend programs at the Yesler Building, Monday – Friday.

Orientation

If someone does not answer the phone, please leave a voice message with your full name and a phone number where you may be reached.

CCAP Enhanced participants are required to attend an orientation on the first day you are ordered or reinstated to CCAP. Plan to arrive at 9:00 am on the date noted on your court order. You will be assigned a caseworker who can answer any questions you may have regarding your CCAP participation.

Location

CCAP is located in the Yesler Building, 400 Yesler Way, which is approximately 2 blocks from the King County Courthouse in Seattle. You must enter the Yesler Building using the public entrance on Terrace Avenue, which is on the north side of the building. Upon entry to the Yesler Building, you will go through a screening process. No drugs or weapons are allowed. Other program and facilities rules will be explained at orientation. Report to the reception area located on the first floor, Room 140.

Failing to report as instructed above will result in a violation of your court order, and notification will be sent to the court.
