

Notes from 3/2024 King County Community Collaborative (KC3)/ King County FYSPRT Meeting

*Kim Rungee shared about her boys that are 24 and what they are experiencing with the judicial system and mental health

*Finding out that there is no system in place that protects a DDA population over the age of 18 in jail

*Even with the parents being an appointed legal guardian the family had no rights or ability to help, or have any communication with the lawyers or their son

*Finally a social worker obtained an ROI for communication

Candace-

*We are in need of all Tri-leads for the FYSPRT

*Needing people to volunteer in meetings

*We need more families and attendees

*Need the meetings to be more family centered

Carolyn Cox-

*Asked about Spark going into recovery schools. Candace will talk to LaTonya

*Recovery schools are a great addition to our communities

*Spark is going into schools to recruit youth for peer roles, depending on outcome of training

* After the youth goes through classes their name is sent to the HCA for peer certification

*Spark will support youth any way they can to become part of the peer workforce
