COMMUNITY

The Board for Developmental Disabilities is dedicated to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and delays. We actively listen to all voices to improve services and supports that meet the diverse needs of the community, while advocating for all families to have access to essential services, supports, and resources.

We are working toward a future where all people with disabilities are fully supported and empowered to thrive, while eliminating challenges and providing equitable access to services that foster independence, opportunity, and the ability to fully participate in all aspects of community life.

The future holds opportunity and inclusion for all!

BOARD RECRUITMENT

The King County Board for Developmental Disabilities is recruiting for new Board Members who are:

- Persons with a developmental disability;

- Parents of young children with developmental delays or disabilities; and

- Black, Indigenous, and People of Color.
