CREATING COMMUNITY

The Board for Developmental Disabilities works to create community by fostering inclusive environments where individuals can participate, contribute, and be supported in their communities.

The Board helps build community by:

- Promoting social inclusion;
- Increasing awareness of supports, services, and issues important to the community; and
- Collaborating with local communities.

Through these efforts, the Board works toward creating a community that values all individuals and provides opportunities for them to thrive and participate in everyday life.
