Employee rights, responsibilities and notification

- Time away from work for qualified leave reasons will be designated and counted against available leave entitlements.
- The employee may use paid leave in accordance with King County Personnel Guidelines and/or collective bargaining agreement (or Superior Court Administrative Guidelines for Personnel Management and the Bailiff Guidelines, as applicable).
- King County uses the rolling 12-month calendar method to determine leave entitlements.
- While on protected leave or during use of available accruals, employees receive the same medical (medical/dental/vision) and non-medical (basic life/basic accidental death and dismemberment/basic long-term disability) benefits they had when on active paid status immediately before the leave began (does not apply to PCPRC).
- Once protected leave is exhausted, employees may choose to continue medical benefits by self-paying for COBRA.
- If the employee enters an unpaid leave status, the employee may choose to continue their basic and supplemental non-medical coverages (life, AD&D, LTD). Contact Benefits, Payroll and Retirement Operations at 206-684-1556.
- Employee rights under Washington Paid Family and Medical Leave may be found at: <https://paidleave.wa.gov/>
- Response forms with the box checked 'Eligibility Notice Only' will require an updated leave response form once the employee has provided the required medical certification.
- Employees are expected to:
 - Notify their supervisor/human resource professional if and when circumstances of leave change.
 - Correctly code protected leave time on timesheets (if leave is intermittent).
 - Make payments to King County for all non-medical insurance (life, AD&D, LTD) once enter an unpaid status (optional).
 - Provide periodic status reports to your supervisor as well as your intent to return to work.
