CLERK'S ALERT

Notice Regarding Clerk's Office Website Translation Project

The King County Department of Judicial Administration, also known as the Superior Court Clerk's Office, is proud to announce the completion of the first phase of our Website Translation Project. The project's goal is to translate key content of our website into the top 7 languages spoken by our customers. In this phase, we have translated information regarding basic Clerk's Office operations, court calendars, fees & waivers, assistance requesting court records, legal financial obligations, State v. Blake refunds, accommodations, and public disclosure requests.

From the Clerk's Office homepage, users can click on their preferred language to access a Landing Page written entirely in and containing all translated content in that language. Links to translated content are also included on the English-language webpages for ease of access.

This is only the beginning! As we move forward into Phase 2 of this project and beyond, we look forward to providing our customers with additional translated content.

To provide feedback on any Clerk's Office website content translations, please email DJATranslations@kingcounty.gov. For assistance with any Clerk's Office services, please call 206-296-9300.
