Catherine Cornwall Appointed King County Superior Court Clerk

King County Superior Court Presiding Judge Patrick Oishi recently announced the appointment of Catherine Cornwall to the position of Department of Judicial Administration (DJA) Director and Superior Court Clerk. Ms. Cornwall will assume this role immediately following the retirement of Barbara Miner on July 21, 2023.

Ms. Cornwall has served as the Deputy Director of DJA since 2022. Prior to joining DJA she held several managerial and advisory roles in county and city government, including ten years as the Fiscal and Policy Manager for the City of Seattle's Budget Office. She brings extensive experience with criminal justice from the numerous projects she has managed in both the City of Seattle and for King County. She holds a bachelor's degree from Haverford College and a master's degree in public administration from the Evans School, University of Washington.

"Ms. Cornwall is deeply committed to public service, access to justice, diversity/equity/inclusion, and the mission and responsibilities of the Superior Court Clerk," said Presiding Judge Patrick Oishi. "On behalf of the Superior Court bench, I am pleased to welcome her to the role. Our court, and the people of King County, will be well served by her leadership of the Department of Judicial Administration."
