

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MOTION AND ORDER TO WAIVE FILING FEES

If you believe that you are unable to afford the civil fee and related surcharges in your civil or family law court case, you may request that the court waive it. In determining whether the filing fee should be waived, the Court will consider your ability to pay. In doing so, the court may apply a financial availability table based on 125% of the Federal Poverty Standard (see below). If there is a joint petition in a family law matter, your income will be added to your spouse's income in determining eligibility for a fee waiver.

However, the court may also waive the requirement for you to pay fees if your income is above the thresholds below, but finds that you have recurring basic living expenses which render you unable to pay the fees, or it may waive the fees if it finds there are other compelling circumstances to do so. If you are represented by a Qualified Legal Services Provider, that provider may obtain a fee waiver by presentation of the forms designated for their use.

Family Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9 or more
Maximum Monthly Income*	$1,569	$2,129	$2,690	$3,250	$3,810	$4,371	$4,931	$5,492	Add $560 for each additional person
Maximum Annual Income*	$18,825	$25,550	$32,275	$39,000	$45,725	$52,450	$59,175	$65,900	Add $6,725 for each additional person

* "Income" means net income received, after taxes and child care costs are deducted.

The court may also waive the fees if you are currently receiving assistance under a needs-based, means-tested assistance program such as the following:

- Federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- State-provided general assistance for unemployable individuals (GA-U or GA-X)
- Federal Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal poverty-related veteran's benefits
- Food Stamp Program (FSP)

If using any of the above as the basis for waiver of fees, please bring evidence, such as a copy of a recent benefits award letter.

FORMS TO USE: The Court has standard forms for obtaining fee waivers, which you are to use even though you may have obtained similar forms elsewhere. The forms are available at no cost in the Clerk's Office (E609), or online (www.courts.wa.gov/forms/?fa=forms.contribute&formID=87).
