

King County

Department of Judicial Administration

(206) 296-9300 (206) 296-0100 TTY/TDD

Instructions for Order to Enforce or Deny Enforcement of the Canadian Domestic Violence Protection Order

If signed by the judge, this order will:

- Enforce the terms laid out in the Canadian Domestic Violence Protection Order. or
- Refuse to deny recognition and enforcement of the Canadian Domestic Violence Protection order

The clerk will file the original order in the public court record and will provide you a certified copy.

Print Clearly! Use Black or Blue Ink, only. If you are reading these instructions in any language other than English, please understand that all court documents must be filled out in English.

Page 1:

- Fill in your name (first, middle, last) as the Petitioner, and put your date of birth where it says "DOB."
- The opposing party in the Canadian domestic violence protection order is the "Respondent", either the protected individual or the restrained person. Fill in the respondent's name (first, middle, last) and date of birth. If you do not know the respondent's date of birth, put in the respondent's age.
- Check the box to choose which option you are requesting. Either you want the court to recognize and enforce the Canadian Domestic Violence Protection Order or you want the court to deny recognition and enforcement of the Canadian Domestic Violence Protection Order in Washington.

The clerk will fill in the court address and telephone number.

Names of Minors

- If no minors are involved, check the box "No Minors Involved."
- If minors are involved, list the name (first, middle, last) and age of each child involved in this case.

Restrained Person's Identifiers

- Describe the physical appearance of the restrained person of the Canadian domestic violence protection order. Please include sex (gender), race, hair color, height, weight, and eye color.
- List any of restrained person's distinguishing features, such as moles, scars, or tattoos.
- Check the box to show if the restrained person has access to weapons.

"The Court Finds" (Question 1)

Please enter the name of the Canadian court that has jurisdiction over the order, case/docket #, and the file date for the Canadian domestic violence protection order that you want the court to enforce or refuse to enforce.

Page 2:

"It is Ordered" (Question 2)

After completing the form, check the box(es) that apply to your request.

"Washington Crime Information Center (WACIC) and Other Data Entry (Question 3)

Enter the name of the law enforcement county or city in Washington that should be responsible for entering this information into WACIC.

Page 3

If You Are the Restrained Person of a Valid Canadian Domestic Violence Protection Order, Please Read the Warnings

Sign the Form

The judge will fill in the date and time the order was granted and sign his or her name.

Sign the bottom of the form on the line for "Respondent" or "Petitioner", however your role is listed in the caption and include today's date. The respondent will sign the form if the respondent attends the hearing.