Pipelines for Employment with King County's Wastewater Treatment Division

Scan each program's QR code to learn more.

Program	About the Program	Duration	Career Path	Requirement(s)	Cost/ Earnings	Application Date
Operator in Training Program	Classroom and on the job training (e.g. essential Operator skills)	6 months	Potential to obtain a full-time King County Wastewater Operator position.	High school diploma or GED. Need to pass written test for admission.	Paid on-the-job training.	Application due end of 2024 and training starts in Spring 2025.
King County College/ Graduate Internship	Various fields	Summer	Helps interns to acquire jobs at King County and elsewhere.	College or graduate student	Paid	Application due in winter for summer program.
King County Clean Water Ambassadors Internship	Environmental and clean water information	July and August weekdays 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.	Help youth to learn and pursue water quality career.	High school student, at least 16 years old, people underrepresented in environmental careers are encouraged to apply.	Paid hourly and ORCA card provided.	Application due in April/May.
King County Priority Hire Program	Recruitment and placement of local workers on public works projects.	Depends on construction period.	On-the-job training and employment in specific trades.	Must reside in a King County priority zip code and come through a labor union.	Paid hourly	Year-round
King County Small Business Accelerator Program	Enabling small businesses to win King County contracts.	Depends on contract period.	Business growth	Certifications for Small Contractors and Suppliers; and by the WA State Office of Minority and Women Business Enterprise.	Becoming a prime contractor for King County's goods and services procurement.	Year-round
King County Jobs	Hiring platform	Temporary and permanent positions	Various fields and positions	Various, job dependent	Paid	Year-round

King County
Department of Natural Resources and Parks
Wastewater Treatment Division

2403_13528w_wtd_career_pipelines.ai