Logic Model for High School FLASH, 3rd edition

Interventions/Lessons	→	Determinants	→	Behaviors	→	Goals

Interventions/Lessons	Determinants	Behaviors	Goals
Preventing Pregnancy: 2: Reproductive system 3: Pregnancy 9: Abstinence 10: Birth control 12: Condoms 14: Communication & decision making 15: School health Preventing STDs & HIV: 9: Abstinence 11: STD prevention 12: Condoms 14: Communication & decision making 15: School health Preventing Sexual Violence: 4: Sexual orientation & gender identity 5: Gender stereotypes 6: Healthy relationships 7: Coercion & consent 8: Online safety 14: Communication & decision making 15. School health Family Communication: All lessons	Preventing Pregnancy, STDs and HIV Determinants: • Self-efficacy to refrain from sex • Self-efficacy in using condoms and contraception • Skill in using condoms • Positive peer norms for condoms or contraceptive use • Perceived benefits and few costs and barriers to using condoms • Positive attitudes towards condoms and other forms of contraception • Positive attitudes about abstinence • Positive peer norms about abstinence • Knowledge of the availability of confidential and low-cost STD testing and treatment services • Positive attitudes and comfort about being tested and treated for STDs • Self-efficacy to visit a clinic and be tested and treated Sexual Violence Determinants: • Skill in recognizing consent and absence of consent • Adherence to homophobic and transphobic beliefs (-) • Adherence to victim-blaming beliefs (-) • Rigid belief in gender stereotypes (-) Family Communication Determinants: • Comfort talking with teens about sex (for parents) • Self-efficacy and skills to talk with teens about sex (for parents) • Self-efficacy and skills to talk with parents about sex (for teens)	Increase birth control use Increase condom use Delay onset of sex Increase STD testing and treatment Decrease acts of sexual assault Increase quantity and quality of family communication about sexual health	Decrease teen pregnancy Decrease STDs and HIV Decrease sexual violence Improve family communication