City

City of Renton
Initiative Measure No. 23-02
Voter Initiative to Establish Labor Standards

City of Renton Citizen Initiative Measure No. 23-02 would enact an ordinance creating labor standards for Renton employers.

The proposed ordinance requires covered employers to pay a minimum wage based on that established by the City of Tukwila, offer additional hours to existing part-time employees before hiring new employees or subcontracted services, not retaliate against employees exercising rights created by the ordinance, and comply with administrative requirements. The proposed ordinance creates remedies and penalties for violations. If enacted, the ordinance could not be repealed without voter approval.

Should this Ordinance be enacted into law?
