

Accessory Dwelling Unit, Notice on Title Requirements

The Department of Local Services, Permitting Division (Permitting) provides land use and building permitting for the unincorporated areas of King County. King County Code requires an Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) Notice on Title be recorded with the Department of Executive Services, Records and Licensing Services Division before a permit can be issued for an Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU).

Submit a completed Accessory Dwelling Unit Notice on Title Affidavit for recording by either:

Department of Local Services, Permitting Division

- Mail or email<sup>1</sup> (PermitServices@KingCounty.gov) the executed document to Permitting.
- The fee for recording the document will be included with your invoice for permitting fees. You will receive an email with instructions for online payment.

OR

Department of Executive Services, Records and Licensing Services Division, Recorders Office

- Mail the executed document, with payment of the recording fee, to the Recorder's Office:

Recorder's Office
King County Administration Building
500 Fourth Ave., Suite 430
Seattle, WA 98104

Submitting for Permit Issuance

If you have used the Permitting Accessory Dwelling Unit Notice on Title Affidavit form for recording, no further action is required. Once the Affidavit is recorded, the Recorder's Office will return a copy to Permitting.

Obtaining a Copy of the Recorded Agreement

- Mail a request along with the appropriate fee to the Recorder's Office.
- Go to the Recorder's Office web page and search on the parcel number at Online records search (<https://www.kingcounty.gov/depts/records-licensing/recorders-office/records-search.aspx>).

There will be a one to two week delay in the availability of imaged documents.
