

King County
Department of Local Services
Permitting Division
206-296-6600
www.kingcounty.gov

Right-of-Way Use Permit - Limited Extension Request

For alternate formats, call 206-296-6600.

To apply for one one-year extension on a Limited Right-of-Way Use Permit, complete this form and submit to: King County Department of Local Services, Permitting Division. For questions or application materials, visit our Customer Support page via <https://kingcounty.gov/permits> or call 206-296-6600.

Project Name _____ Project No. _____

Address _____ Activity No. _____

Date Issued _____

Date Expires _____

Limited Right-of-Way Use Permits expire 1 year from the date of issuance. The permit applicant may apply for one 1-year extension.

King County Code 14.28.050 Permit – Limited:

The permit applicant may apply for one one-year extension to the right-of-way use permit: limited, upon written application for an extension, payment of the fees, and being found to have fully complied with the conditions and requirements of the original permit. The application for extension may only be made after the first six months of the original permit life. (Ord. 12020 § 44, 1995; Ord. 7990 § 14, 1987; Ord. 4895 § 5, 1980).

Reason for Extension Request:

Applicant's Signature

Date

Check out the Permitting Web site at www.kingcounty.gov/permits