If you do not take one of these actions within 90 days, you may be placed on the “no-ride list.”

WHAT THE “NO-RIDE LIST” MEANS

If you are on the “no-ride list” and a Fare Enforcement Officer finds you riding without proof of payment, you may be suspended from riding Metro for 12 hours. If you ride Metro during your 12-hour suspension, you could be charged with criminal trespassing. Once your 12-hour suspension ends, that citation will be marked as resolved.
