Obtaining your firearms:

A background check is performed prior to all firearm releases, even voluntary surrenders. Since federal, state and local laws prohibit certain persons from possessing firearms, it is possible that the firearm/s may not be returned to you, even if the matter for which you are surrendering them is resolved in your favor.

1. When you come to claim your firearm/s, bring government-issued photo identification (driver's license, identification card, military identification, passport, etc). Firearms will not be released without identification.
2. Firearms will only be released to the restrained person named on the Order to Release Weapons.
