How to

Ask for a Divorce

For spouses/registered domestic partners who agree

Use this packet only if:

- You and your spouse or registered domestic partner agree on the terms of your divorce, and
- Your spouse or registered domestic partner will sign the court papers to show that they agree before you file the petition.

WARNINGS!

• If one of you is pregnant, or a child was born before the divorce, the other spouse is considered the legal parent. If you do not think the other spouse/registered domestic partner is the parent, you may need to file a parentage case before you finalize the divorce. If you are in this situation, talk to a lawyer.

Talk to a lawyer if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They provide legal information only and are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice.

Facilitators cannot provide legal advice or complete your forms for you. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms.

 You can get information about their services and a list of low-cost and free legal resources at https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/family-law-facilitators.

Step 2: Make Copies

Which documents do I need copies of?

- Petition for Dissolution
- Proposed Parenting Plan (only if there are dependent children)

You do not need copies of the Case Assignment Area Form, Confidential Information or Vital Statistics. The originals will be filed with the Clerk.

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with the Clerk's office.
- Copy 1 is for your records.
- Copy 2 is to give to the other party.

Step 3: Start (file) your case

You can start (file), your case by either bringing your original forms to the Clerk's Office (room 2C in Kent and E-609 in Seattle),

OR

You can file your case online on the Clerk's website at: https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/court-forms-document-filing/filing If you have questions about e-filing call 206-477-3000, or email eServices@kingcounty.gov.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Your 90-day waiting period begins on the day you file your joint petition, or the day that the Joinder form is signed by the Respondent.

Step 4: Pay the fee

While starting the case, the Clerk will ask you to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, apply to waive the fee. This application is available here:

https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/courts-financial/fees-payments/fee-waiver

Step 5: You must complete the family law class(es)

Self-represented parties must complete the Family Law Orientation by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. You can register online at: https://kcscfamlaworientation.eventbrite.com. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email famLawOrientation@kingcounty.gov.

If you have children under 18, you must also complete the parenting seminar "What About the Children," by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email Parentseminar@kingcounty.gov.

Step 6: Look at your Joinder (on last page of your Petition or separate "Joinder" form)

If your spouse or registered domestic partner checked the first box indicating that they "waive notice", you are not required to serve the other party to finalize your case.

If your spouse or registered domestic partner checked the second box stating, "I ask the Petitioner to notify me about any hearings in this case," they must:

- Sign the completed documents in Step 7, or
- You must serve them the completed documents in Step 7. You can personally deliver the forms to the other party 14 days or mail the documents 17 days before the facilitators are scheduled to present your final documents to a judicial officer.

You must file a Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form with the Clerk's office to prove that your spouse/partner was properly served.

Step 7: Finishing your Case/Complete Final Documents

You may bring your signed final documents to the Facilitator's office during walk-in hours or email to facilitators@kingcounty.gov.

Completely fill out and sign these forms. As a self-represented party, you are responsible for filling out all final documents as you want the judicial officer to sign them.

General Tips:

- 1) 231 Findings and Conclusions and 241 Final Divorce Order are twin documents. Any information in 231 must be repeated or referenced in 241.
- 2) The other party must sign the final documents if they "Demanded Notice" on the Joinder or if they are the Petitioner.
- 3) If the other party "waived notice," they do not need notice of the final documents or to sign the final documents AS LONG AS the final documents contain the same information as the Petition for Dissolution.
