

How to

Ask for a Legal Separation

For spouses/registered domestic partners who do not agree

Use this packet only if you and your spouse or registered domestic partner do not agree on the terms of your Legal Separation.

Important If one of you is pregnant, or a child was born while you are married, the other spouse is considered the legal parent. If you do not think the other spouse/registered domestic partner is the parent, you may need to file a parentage case before you finalize the divorce. If you are in this situation, talk to a lawyer.

Talk to a lawyer if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They provide legal information only and are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice.

Facilitators cannot provide legal advice or complete your forms for you. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms.

- You can get information about their services and a list of low-cost and free legal resources at <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/family-law-facilitators>.

Step 1: Fill out these forms

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with the Clerk's office.
- Copy 1 is for your records.
- Copy 2 is to serve the other party.
- Make a 3rd copy if you have a child(ren) who has received public assistance at some point. You must deliver copies of your filed forms to the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Family Support Section.

Step 3: Start (file) Your Case

You can start (file), your case by either bringing your original forms to the Clerk's Office (room 2C in Kent and E-609 in Seattle),

OR

You can file your case online on the Clerk's website at:

<https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/court-forms-document-filing/filing>

If you have questions about e-filing call 206-477-3000, or email eServices@kingcounty.gov.

Step 4: Pay the fee

While starting the case, the Clerk will ask you to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, apply to waive the fee. This application is available here:

<https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/courts-financial/fees-payments/fee-waiver>

Step 5: Have the other party served

You must have the other party served with copies of:

- The Case Schedule that the Clerk gave you when you filed, and
- All the forms you filed with the clerk, except the Case Assignment Area Form and the Confidential Information Form.

How to serve

Someone over 18 – not you - must serve (give) the other party copies of your court papers. After serving, the server fills out a Proof of Personal Service form and gives it to you. Keep a copy for your own records and file the original with the Clerk's Office.

If you have questions about serving, ask the facilitators for the packet of information about service.

Step 6: You and your spouse/registered domestic partner must go to a family law class

Self-represented parties must complete the Family Law Orientation by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. You can register online at: <https://kcscfamlaworientation.eventbrite.com>. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email FamLawOrientation@kingcounty.gov.

If you have children under 18, you must also complete the parenting seminar “What About the Children,” by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. You can register online at: <https://kcscparentseminar.eventbrite.com>. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email Parentseminar@kingcounty.gov.

Step 7: Follow your Case Schedule

The next step is to wait to see if the other party files a Response.

You must wait:

20 days	If the other party was served in person in Washington state.
60 days	If the other party was served in person outside of Washington state, or by publication (because of a court order).
90 days	If the other party was served by mail because of a court order.

If the other party does serve and file a Response, follow your Case Schedule. Your trial will be in about 11 months. If you want to ask for temporary orders now, ask the Family Law Facilitators for instruction for Motion for Temporary Orders.

If the other party does not serve and file a Response by the deadline you can finish your Legal Separation by default. See Step 8

Step 8: Finishing your Case

There are three ways to finish your case:

Default

If the other party does not file a Response to the Petition by the deadline, you may be able to finalize your case by default. There are instructions called “How to Ask for an Order of Default” under the “Motions and Orders” section here: <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/how-to-resources-family-law>

Agreement

If you come to an agreement before trial, you can finish your case early. Please schedule an appointment with a facilitator or stop by during walk-in hours:
<https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/family-law-facilitators>

Trial

If you and the other party cannot come to an agreement about your divorce you will have a trial before a Judge. Make sure that both your email and mailing address are up-to-date so that the court can contact you. Instructions on preparing for trial are available at the Facilitators office.

- If your case does not involve children: you must fill out and file the Joint Confirmation of Trial Readiness form and other trial documents by the deadlines in your case schedule.
- If your case does involve children: about 4 to 6 weeks before your trial you will get an order in the mail telling you to come to court for a Pre-Trial Conference. At that hearing, the Judge will give you an Order. The Order will tell you what forms you need to finish your case and when they are due.

Informal Family Law Trial (IFLT):

Requirements to select an IFLT. All parties must state whether they wish to proceed with an IFLT or a traditional trial. All parties must agree to proceed with an IFLT. Each party shall make its selection in writing using the Family Law Trial Selection Form. The Family Law Trial Selection form must be filed prior to the trial commencing. For cases in which there is a pretrial conference hearing, the selection shall be made at that hearing. If there is no pretrial conference hearing, the selection shall be made in the Joint Confirmation of Trial Readiness form. If a party does not file a selection using either form prior to the trial commencing, the case will proceed as a traditional trial. For more information on IFLT see LFLR 23
