

How to Ask for Your Marriage to be Invalidated (Annulled)

For spouses/registered domestic partners who do not agree

Use this packet only if you and your spouse or registered domestic partner do not agree on invalidating your marriage.

WARNINGS!

- If one of you is pregnant, or a child was born before the marriage is declared invalid, the other spouse is considered the legal parent. If you do not think the other spouse/registered domestic partner is the parent, you may need to file a parentage case before you finalize the case. If you are in this situation, talk to a lawyer.

Talk to a lawyer if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They provide legal information only and are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice.

Facilitators cannot provide legal advice or complete your forms for you. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms.

You can get information about their services and a list of low-cost and free legal resources at <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/family-law-facilitators>

How to serve

Someone over 18 – not you - must serve (give) the other party copies of your court papers. After serving, the server fills out a Proof of Personal Service form. This document must be filed with the Clerk's Office.

Fill out these forms after the other party is served.

Proof of Personal Service	FL All Family 101	Form is signed by the server.	☐
Declaration: Personal Service Could Not be Made in Washington	FL All Family 102	Only use if the other party is personally served out-of-state	☐

If you have more questions about serving, visit walawhelp.org and type "How to Serve" in the search bar.

REMINDER: As you move through your case, any additional documents you file must be served to the other party.

Step 6: You must complete the family law class(es)

Self-represented parties must complete the Family Law Orientation by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. You can register online at: <https://kcscfamlaworientation.eventbrite.com>. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email FamLawOrientation@kingcounty.gov.

If you have children under 18, you must also complete the parenting seminar "What About the Children," by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule. You can register online at: <https://kcscparentseminar.eventbrite.com>. If you have questions or need to waive the fee, email Parentseminar@kingcounty.gov.

Step 7: Wait for a Response

The next step is to wait to see if the other party files a Response.

You must wait:

20 days	If the other party was served in person in Washington state.
60 days	If the other party was served in person outside of Washington state, or by publication (because of a court order).
90 days	If the other party was served by mail because of a court order.

If the other party files a Response, follow your Case Schedule. Your trial will be in about 11 months. If need temporary orders, visit walawhelp.org and type "Temporary Family Law Orders" in the search bar to learn more.

Step 8: Finishing your Case

There are three ways to finish your case. For finalizing by default and by agreement, you will need to schedule a hearing in front of your assigned judge. You will need to reach out to the bailiff to find out when the judge is available. Once you have a hearing date, you will fill in and file the Notice of Court Date.

Notice of Court Date (Judges) (Kent or Seattle)		This must be filed within 3 court days of scheduling your hearing.	☐

Default

If the other party does not file a Response to the Petition by the deadline, you may be able to finalize by scheduling a hearing before your assigned judge. Look for the instructions called "Invalidity by Default" here: <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/how-to-resources-family-law>

Agreement

If you come to an agreement before trial, you can finish your case early by scheduling a hearing before your assigned Judge with oral argument. For more information, please visit: <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/how-to-resources-family-law>

Find the contact information for your bailiff here: <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/about-superior-court/judges-staff/judges>

Trial

If you and the other party cannot come to an agreement about your divorce you will have a trial before your assigned judge. Make sure that both your email and mailing address are up to date so that the court can contact you. Instructions on preparing for trial are available at the Facilitators office.

- If your case does not involve children: you must fill out and file the Joint Confirmation of Trial Readiness form and other trial documents by the deadlines in your case schedule.
- If your case does involve children: about 4 to 6 weeks before your trial, you will get an order in the mail telling you to come to court for a Pre-Trial Conference. At that hearing, the Judge will give you an Order. The Order will tell you what forms you need to finish your case and when they are due.
