II. FINDINGS OF FACT

- RCW 71.05.240 Probable Cause Hearing. Petitioner has proven the following by a preponderance of the evidence:
 - Likelihood of Serious Harm. The Respondent, as a result of a behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm
 - to others;
 - to himself/herself/themself;
 - to the property of others.
 - Gravely Disabled. The Respondent, as a result of a behavioral health disorder, is gravely disabled under
 - Prong A; and/or
 - Prong B.
 - Less Restrictive Alternative Treatment. Treatment in a less restrictive alternative setting than detention
 - is in the best interest of the Respondent or others.
 - is not in the best interest of the Respondent or others.
 - Good Faith Voluntary Patient. Respondent raised this defense to commitment and the Court finds:
 - Respondent has alleged prior to the commencement of the hearing that the person has, in good faith, volunteered for treatment.
 - Petitioner has proven by a preponderance of the evidence that Respondent has not, in good faith, volunteered for appropriate treatment.
- RCW 71.05.280 Additional Confinement - Grounds for 90-Day Order of Commitment. Petitioner has proven the following by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence:
 - After having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment, Respondent has threatened, attempted, or inflicted: (a) physical harm upon the person of another or himself/herself/themself or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (b) as a result of a behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm.

- Respondent was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or she attempted or inflicted physical harm on the person of another or himself/herself/themself, or substantial damage on the property of others, and continues to present a likelihood of serious harm as a result of a behavioral health
- Respondent is gravely disabled under
 - Prong A; and/or
 - Prong B.
- Less Restrictive Alternative Treatment. Treatment in a less restrictive alternative setting than detention
 - is in the best interest of the Respondent or others.
 - is not in the best interest of the Respondent or others.
- RCW 71.05.320 Additional Confinement - Grounds for 180-Day Order of Commitment. Petitioner has proven the following by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence:
 - During the current period of court ordered treatment, Respondent (a) has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (b) as a result of a behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm.
 - Respondent was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which they attempted or inflicted physical harm on the person of another, and continues to present, as a result of a behavioral health disorder, a likelihood of serious harm.
 - Respondent continues to be gravely disabled under
 - Prong A; and/or
 - Prong B.
 - Less Restrictive Alternative Treatment. Treatment in a less restrictive alternative setting than detention
 - is in the best interest of the Respondent and others.
 - is not in the best interest of the Respondent and others.
- RCW 71.05.320(4) - Grounds for Extension of Order for Less Restrictive Treatment. Petitioner has proven the following by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence:
 - Respondent was previously committed by the court to detention for involuntary behavioral health treatment during thirty-six (36) months that preceded the person's initial detention date during the current involuntary commitment cycle.
 - In view of the Respondent's treatment history or current behavior, the Respondent is unlikely to voluntarily participate in outpatient treatment without an order for less restrictive treatment.
 - Outpatient treatment that would be provided under a less restrictive treatment order is necessary to prevent a relapse, decompensation, or deterioration that is likely to result in the Respondent presenting a likelihood of serious harm or the Respondent becoming gravely disabled within a reasonably short period of time.
 - Does not present of serious harm and is not gravely disabled.

- Agreed Order. The Respondent, after consultation with counsel, voluntarily submitted himself/herself/themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court and agreed to the entry of an order for
 - more restrictive involuntary behavioral health treatment.
 - less restrictive involuntary behavioral health treatment.
 - less restrictive involuntary behavioral health treatment - Recovery Pilot Project (RPP).
- Other Findings of Fact: .

In addition to the above written findings and conclusions, the Court incorporates by reference the oral findings of fact and conclusions of law.

On the basis of the foregoing Findings of Fact and the records and files in this proceeding, the Court makes the following conclusions of law:

RESPONDENT'S PRESENCE WAIVER

I am the Respondent in this matter. My lawyer has discussed this Order with me. I know I have the right to a hearing/trial and that if I elect a trial that I will remain in treatment until the trial is completed. I know I have the right to be present at the entry of this Order. I do not wish to be present in court. I consent to the entry of this Order. I understand that upon entry of this Order, I lose any right to possess, in any manner, a firearm as defined in RCW 9.41.010 and any concealed pistol license. I have been informed that if I am or become subject to the supervision of the Department of Corrections, the information from my behavioral health provider must be shared with the Department of Corrections unless I petition the court and the court finds that public safety would not be enhanced by sharing such information.
