I have been advised:

1. That I have the right to appeal my adjudication;
2. That I have the right to appeal my disposition if the disposition imposed is higher than the standard range;
3. That unless a notice of appeal is filed within thirty days after the entry of the judgment or order appealed from, the right to appeal is irrevocably waived;
4. That the Superior Court clerk will, if requested, supply a notice of appeal form and file it upon completion by me;
5. That I have the right, if I cannot afford it, to have counsel appointed and to have portions of the trial record necessary for review of assigned errors transcribed at public expense for an appeal;
6. That, pursuant to RCW 10.73.090, I have the right to collaterally attack my adjudication within one year after the judgment becomes final
7. That the time limits for collateral attack do not apply if there is newly discovered evidence if discovered with reasonable diligence, or if the statute is unconstitutional, or if the adjudication was barred by the double jeopardy clauses, or if the evidence at trial was insufficient, or if there was a significant change in the law material to the adjudication which applies retroactively, or if the disposition was outside the court's jurisdiction, pursuant to RCW 10.73.100.
