ORDER OF DISMISSAL

SUBJECT: Regional Animal Services of King County file no. V21012491-A21004426

Activity no.: A21004426

Appellant: Sherry and Steve Morrow

Animal Services emailed that, as the Morrows were apparently being more successful at keeping their cats from trespassing, it is dismissing violation V21012491, without prejudice, and encouraging the current compliance to continue moving forward.

A dismissal without prejudice does not preclude Animal Services from reissuing a violation notice regarding the same underlying event, if the dispute does not resolve itself. Any new violation notice would have its own separate appeal deadline and examiner process.

The appeal is accordingly DISMISSED, the examiner’s jurisdiction over the matter terminated, and today’s pre-hearing conference cancelled.

If for some reason we have misunderstood the situation, by November 15, 2021, either party is free to file, with the examiner, a motion for reconsideration explaining why the examiner should not be dismissing this appeal. Filing a timely motion for reconsideration postpones the deadline (described below the signature line) for lodging an appeal.

DATED October 14, 2021.

David Spohr
Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

King County Code 20.22.040 directs the Examiner to make the County’s final decision for this type of case. This decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed to superior court by November 15, 2021. Either party may appeal this decision by applying for a writ of review in superior court in accordance with chapter 7.16 RCW.
