After neither party appeared at our November 4 conference, on November 8 we emailed and mailed the notice of today's conference. We received no communication in response from the Appellant, but Animal Services accepted the calendar invite. Yet again neither party appeared at our conference today.

We thus DISMISS WITHOUT PREJUDICE Animal Services' September 23 Notice of Violation and Order to Comply. A dismissal without prejudice means there is no bar to Animal Services reissuing another violation notice related to the same September 15 event.

If for some reason we have misunderstood the situation, by December 16, 2021, either party is free to file, with the examiner, a motion for reconsideration explaining why the examiner should not be dismissing this appeal. Filing a timely motion for reconsideration postpones the deadline (described below the signature line) for lodging an appeal.

DATED November 16, 2021.

David Spohr
Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

King County Code 20.22.040 directs the Examiner to make the County's final decision for this type of case. This decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed to superior court by December 16, 2021. Either party may appeal this decision by applying for a writ of review in superior court in accordance with chapter 7.16 RCW.
