We received a notification that Regional Animal Services of King County is dismissing the violation notice, without prejudice. (A dismissal without prejudice is not a decision on the merits, and it does not preclude Animal Services from later re-issuing a violation notice on the same facts if the situation deteriorates.)

With no current violation notice to appeal, Mr. Singh's appeal is DISMISSED as moot, the examiner's jurisdiction over the matter terminated, and the hearing scheduled for June 14, 2022, cancelled.

If for some reason we have misunderstood the situation, by June 30, 2022, either party is free to file, with the examiner, a motion for reconsideration explaining why the examiner should not be dismissing this appeal. Filing a timely motion for reconsideration postpones the deadline (described below the signature line) for lodging an appeal.

DATED May 31, 2022.

David Spohr
Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

King County Code 20.22.040 directs the Examiner to make the County's final decision for this type of case. This decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed to superior court by June 30, 2022. Either party may appeal this decision by applying for a writ of review in superior court in accordance with chapter 7.16 RCW.
