We received notice that Animal Services has dismissed violation V22013725 without prejudice. A dismissal without prejudice is not a ruling on the merits and it does not prevent Animal Services from bringing a later enforcement action. But it does mean there currently is no violation for Mr. Baccus to challenge.

The appeal is accordingly DISMISSED, the examiner's jurisdiction over the matter terminated, and the hearing scheduled for January 4, 2023, cancelled.

If for some reason we have misunderstood the situation, by January 20, 2023, either party is free to file, with the examiner, a motion for reconsideration explaining why the examiner should not be dismissing this appeal. Filing a timely motion for reconsideration postpones the deadline (described below the signature line) for lodging an appeal.

DATED December 21, 2022.

David Spohr
Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

King County Code 20.22.040 directs the Examiner to make the County's final decision for this type of case. This decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed to superior court by January 20, 2023. Either party may appeal this decision by applying for a writ of review in superior court in accordance with chapter 7.16 RCW.
