The appellant's representative notified us this morning that the parties have reached an agreement and today's hearing is no longer needed. Based on notification that the parties have mutually agreed to a resolution, the appeal of the County's determination is moot.

The appeal is accordingly DISMISSED, the examiner's jurisdiction over the matter terminated, and the hearing scheduled for later today cancelled.

If for some reason we have misunderstood the situation, by January 2, 2023, either party is free to file, with the examiner, a motion for reconsideration explaining why the examiner should not be dismissing this appeal. Filing a timely motion for reconsideration postpones the deadline (described below the signature line) for lodging an appeal.

DATED December 1, 2022.

David Spohr
Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

King County Code 20.22.040 directs the Examiner to make the County's final decision for this type of case. This decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed to superior court by January 2, 2023. Either party may appeal this decision by applying for a writ of review in superior court in accordance with chapter 7.16 RCW.
