On December 18, 2025, we emailed and mailed our notice for the January 13, 2026, hearing. We received no communication in response that this date or time did not work for the appellant, Mr. Hamara. Animal Services timely appeared at the hearing. We waited the requisite ten minutes, but Mr. Hamara did not appear or contact our office during that time to communicate any technical difficulties joining the hearing or other issues that would warrant a continuance.

Appellant's failure to appear constitutes abandonment of the appeal. The appeal is accordingly DISMISSED with prejudice.

If we have misunderstood the situation, either party may email us a motion for reconsideration explaining why the appeal should not be dismissed. The motion must be received by February 3, 2026, or prior to any appeal deadline for judicial review, if applicable. If no motion is received, this Order of Dismissal shall be final and conclusive.

DATED January 13, 2026.
